On Monday, October 17th, Eddie and Ozzie from Table 26 hosted their final Dinner for a Cause benefiting the homeless dogs and puppies of Big Dog Ranch Rescue. The night featured a delicious four course meal by Executive Chef, Amit Jain, paired with elegant, world-renowned wines by the Trefethen Family Vineyards.

The evening was full of fun and education as Eddie and Emily Pantelides told the cold, hard truth about dogs in our community who need our help. In fact, two guests fell in love with furry friends from the event and later welcomed them into their homes.

Lauree Simmons, President of Big Dog Ranch Rescue, hoped to raise some much needed funds for cage-free bunkhouse rooms at the new facility in Loxahatchee, FL, as well as medicine for strays and other “last day” dogs they save. All in all, two bunkhouse rooms were sponsored, and the ranch raised $37,000 for voiceless dogs and puppies.

Jacob & Co Jewelry Exhibition at Hermitage Monaco

An idyllic luxury journey

Jacob & Co spread the sparkle all over Hermitage Hotel in Monaco on August 5th, 2016 with a Gala Cocktail celebrating the luxury jewelry and haute design. In a variety of creativity on different themes and energies, the exhibition is a walk to different exquisite tastes, a journey to an idyllic place where refinement has the major word.

At Salle Belle Epoque at Hermitage Hotel, every corner had its glitter that continued with the glitzy ambiance on the terrace under the romantic lights of the little lanterns hanging on the trees, the musical ambiance, and the amazing view over the port and Le Rocher.

Adopt a Trumpette Luncheon at Café L'Europe, October 29th, 2016

The Trumpettes' mission was simple: "To recruit more people to vote for the Palm Beach candidate and to keep supporting Donald J. Trump", said Toni Holt Kramer.

She is the founder of the Trumpettes, a women's group based in Palm Beach, FL that supports President-elect Donald J. Trump. and now has members Nationwide, and also interest worldwide.

"They don't have to love Trump," Toni Holt Kramer said, "They just need to love America. We have the most diversified group of women."

Toni Holt Kramer,
Founder of The Trumpettes

Toni Holt Kramer added, "The Adopt a Trumpette Luncheon was conceived to give Trumpettes, Trumpsters, and Trump supporters the opportunity to take someone to the lunch that was potentially undecided on how they would vote. We had wonderful speakers and were entertained by Doug Verga at Café L'Europe. I must give special praise and many thanks to my Founding Trumpettes, Janet Levy, Suzy Goldsmith, Terry Ebert Mendozza, and myself, who donated the money that enabled the Trump Mobile to visit numerous polling stations from Miami to Palm Beach. Also, tremendous thanks go to Robin Bernstein and Annie Marie

Delgado as well as Rhonda Shear Fagan who flew to California to take the TV interview for the Trumpettes USA with me and Nightline."

She also added, "Another highlight of our lunch was the Trump sunglasses adorned with Swarovski crystals that were available for purchase and designed by my longtime friend Sandy Martindale. During the lunch, Robin Bernstein and I were interviewed by Richard Peritz, where we shared the spotlight with Rudy Giuliani for The Shalom Show. Also, ITN flew a film crew over from the UK who covered the lunch and aired it on their major network in Great Britain."

PBTI would like to commend both Donald Trump on his victory in the 2016 Presidential election, as well as Toni Holt Kramer and The Trumpettes for their work and support in the days leading to the election. Donald Trump's Victory is the Victory for all of us and the Victory for America.

My name is Rosa Castillo Olivas.

As an immigrant who was sold and trafficked into the USA, I embraced Donald J. Trump during his campaign because I firmly believe America needs to take action in the prevention and fight against human trafficking in the area around the USA/Mexico border. My friends and I feel passionate about our support for Donald J. Trump for President because he has openly addressed problems that affect the USA and Mexico.

We love America, and we support and respect our constitution.

Sandy & Vinnie Pezzino were very happy to support Stampar Jewelers and Helper Geneve USA's launch

Rainer Stampar knew from an early age that he loved to build and create new things. Right from high school he was intrigued by the way the Earth created minerals and gems, sparking his lifelong interest in Gemology. He graduated from Gemological Institute of America in Santa Monica, California. Infused with the knowledge of gems and the “know-how” with regards to creating jewelry, he quickly began a jewelry studio making new and unique designs for many high end retail jewelry stores.

Rainer Stampar’s fascination with design and his attention to fine detail has landed him right where he is today. His store and studio has been located in Jupiter, Florida for the last 22 years. Rainer often says, “My work is an extension of who I am”, yet his greatest accomplishment is that he considers himself to be a devoted father of four amazing children.

FRIENDS, COLOR, & FASHION

Come Together in Palm Beach

Great friends, Model Irina Pantaveva, Interior Designer Guy Clark and Fashion Designer Harrison Morgan on a normal Palm Beach afternoon.

Irina wears all Harrison Morgan: fox and lace bolero, black silk beaded dress, bold gold plated bracelet, earring, necklace, and hair ornament.

Irina Pantaveva is a Russian-American model and actress. In 1992, she moved to Paris to pursue her modeling career. She succeeded in getting an appointment with Karl Lagerfeld, that allowed her to join in his fashion show and the world of haute couture.

Pantaveva has walked runways for renowned designers and fashion houses, such as: Christian Dior, Versace, Alexander McQueen, Thierry Mugler, John Galliano, Yves Saint Laurent, Chloé. Irina was presented on covers of the fashion magazines: Vogue, Harper's Bazaar, Elle, etc.

She was a Sports Illustrated swimsuit model and wrote her autobiography Siberian Dream: A Memoir, which was published by Avon/Bard. As an actress, Irina starred in the films Mortal Combat and Zoolander, and also on Broadway in Jewtopia, as well as on TV in the hit series Third Rock From The Sun. These iconic characters made Irina a modern day cult figure in Pop culture. Irina is an internationally recognized spokesperson for environmental causes that are true to her heart, such as cleansing the world's sources of clean drinking water.

Nowadays, Irina Pantaveva wears with great pride: dresses, boleros, and jewelry designed by Harrison Morgan.

My approach to each collection begins with reflecting on the timeless designs of the most predominant periods of fine jewelry. As fashion is epitomized by change, itself, I allow the beauty of classic jewelry to acquire a contemporary interpretation, and am satisfied when I have combined refined elegance with a radiantly youthful spirit. My designs incorporate 18K gold plate and semi-precious gemstones or pearls.

“Specifically designed for the glamorous”
– Harrison Morgan

Inspired by classical architecture, past and present fashion trends, Guy can find perfect beauty almost anywhere he looks. After having worked successfully in the jewelry industry for notable houses such as Cartier and DeBeers, Guy started his own Interior Design firm in 1999. Instant success came with notable clients from Wall Street, the British Royal Family, Hollywood Personalities, and New York Society. With over fifteen years of high end design experience, Guy is an accomplished and internationally acclaimed Interior Designer. He often appears on NBC in the U.S. and is also a celebrated Scandinavian TV personality with a TV series, commercials, and Home Product lines. Guy Clark –is a proud and prominent resident of Palm Beach and NYC.

Snake textured, 18Kt yellow gold plated necklace, bracelet and earring set.

Interview with Margrit from Salon Margrit

1. When did you first realize you wanted to be a hair stylist, and where did you start

I realized I wanted to be a stylist while I was a teenager, I grew up in Germany, so I trained there for 3 years.

2. Who is your style icon?

Audrey Hepburn

3. How would you describe your own style?

My style is always classic with a touch of elegance for evening; which fits perfectly into the "Palm Beach Look" day or night.

4. What makes a woman Beautiful?

When somebody comes out of facial rooms with beautiful soft dewy skin.

5. What is your guilty pleasure?

Great restaurants, and eating well!

6. What is your favorite part of being a stylist?

Making the person in my chair feel truly beautiful

7. After being in business on the island for more than 30 years, how do you keep it interesting?

By expanding in new areas, such as new services or clothing and gifts, I re-opened the large boutique and it's very exciting!

8. Which service do you enjoy doing most?

I have a true passion for color I find it really rewarding.

9. So it seems you still find working everyday exciting and rewarding, do you ever plan on retiring?

No!! But my daughter-in-law, Melrose has joined me, and she is amazingly talented and passionate. She is also, bringing in the "new generation" which is just such great energy.

10. Summers are slow on the island, how do you stay busy?

Times are changing and there are more and more full-time residents, so they are not as slow as you may think. I do take the opportunity to physically improve the salon, for example this year I reconfigured the lobby, and we install fabulous new pedicure chairs.

11. How has the awareness of sun damage effected the beauty business?

Well one way is that it has made our spray-tan booth very popular! Also, my husband Dr. Richard Lynn has recently held a class for all of our employees on how to recognize potentially serious skin issues, it's great, because he is one more person watching out for your health.

12. And last but not least, what is something a woman can do at home to have beautiful hair?

The correct shampoo and conditioner for hair and skin type can make all the difference in the world.

HISTORIC RAMPOLDI RESTAURANT BROUGHT BACK TO LIFE

After four years of closure, celebrated Monaco eatery Rampoldi has re-opened in August 2016 to continue the legacy it began in 1946.

With its rich history and culture the resurgence of the Rampoldi Restaurant Monte-Carlo, warmly welcomed guests at their official opening in August 2016. Established in 1946, the restaurant Rampoldi quickly became the place to be, especially considering its key location right in the historic Carre d'Or of Monte Carlo. Celebrities from all around the world would come to live the authentic Monegasque experience. Rampoldi has always been widely sought-after for its prime location, unique ambiance, and authentic Mediterranean cuisine up until its closing four years ago. Extensive renovations have since been carried out to adapt the restaurant's style to modern times, all while maintaining its roots, core identity and charm.

Anatomy of a COLLECTION

Who wears what? This is the question posed by the Palais Galliera's Anatomy of a Collection exhibition. Ranging from court wear to work overalls and from celebrities to unknowns, the exhibition draws on the Galliera collection for garments and accessories illustrating fashion from the 18th century to the present day.

Examples: from among all the corsets in the Museum's storerooms, Anatomy of a Collection is presenting Marie-Antoinette's; and from among all the blouses, one that belonged to a First World War nurse whose name has not come down to us...The Dauphin's suit, Napoleon's waistcoat, Empress Josephine's dress, Castiglione's blouse, Cléo de Mérode's riding jacket, a worker's trousers, George Sand's dress, Sarah Bernhardt's cape, a Zouave's uniform, Mistinguett's T-bar shoes, Gala Dali's shoe-hat, a workman's apron, Audrey Hepburn's outfit, Elsa Schiaparelli's overcoat, the Duchess of Windsor's dress, a dress worn by Jacqueline Bouvier (Jackie Kennedy), and more...Two hundred items with or without pedigree, but identified with the people who wore them.

Anatomy of a Collection (May 14 - October 23, 2016) and Anatomy of a Collection - Part II (November 3, 2016 - February 2017) are a selection of garments with historical associations that reflects the essence of the collection and the complex task of attribution demanded by each of these heritage pieces.

Known for being close to the surrealists of the day and especially Salvador Dali (1904-1989), Elsa Schiaparelli blends art and fashion with humor and audacity. This extravagant "Hat-Shoe", taking shape of a high-heeled court shoe, is without doubt one of the most important emblematic of the surrealist current in fashion. Inspired by a photograph taken in 1933 by Gala Dali (1894-1982) of her husband Salvador wearing a woman's shoe on his head, the "Hat-Shoe" appears in 1937-1938 winter collection from Schiaparelli.

Italy

The Trevi Fountain is a fountain in the Trevi district in Rome, Italy, designed by Italian architect Nicola Salvi and completed by Pietro Bracci. Standing 86 ft high and 161 ft wide, it is the largest Baroque fountain in the city and one of the most famous fountains in the world.

Florence

Piazza della Signoria

Searching for Utopia

After having read the historical fiction by Robin Maxwell Signora da Vinci, I felt compelled to visit the historical city.

Piazza della Signoria is an L-shaped square in front of the Palazzo Vecchio in Florence, Italy. It was named after the Palazzo della Signoria, also called Palazzo Vecchio. It is the focal point of the origin and of the history of the Florentine Republic and still maintains its reputation as the political hub of the city.[1] It is the meeting place of Florentines as well as the numerous tourists, located near Ponte Vecchio and Piazza del Duomo and gateway to Uffizi Gallery.

The sculpture, "Searching for Utopia," is part of "Spiritual Guards," an exhibit by Belgian artist Jan Fabre that opened on April 15, 2016. The three-part exhibit currently has works in Piazza della Signoria and Palazzo Vecchio

The Uffizi Gallery is a prominent art museum located adjacent to the Piazza della Signoria in central Florence, region of Tuscany, Italy. The building of Uffizi complex was begun by Giorgio Vasari in 1560 for Cosimo I de' Medici so as to accommodate the offices of the Florentine magistrates, hence the name uffizi, "offices".

Il Latini & L'Osteria di Giovanni are two amazing restaurants in Florence, both specializing in Tuscan cuisine. Both restaurants are a tradition, a way of getting acquainted with Tuscany, its people and its culture.

Rome

The Spanish Steps are a set of steps in Rome, Italy, climbing a steep slope between the Piazza di Spagna at the base and Piazza Trinità dei Monti, dominated by the Trinità dei Monti church at the top. The stairway was designed by architects Francesco de Sanctis and Alessandro Specchi.

The Colosseum, is an oval amphitheatre in the centre of the city of Rome, Italy. Built of concrete and sand, it is the largest amphitheatre ever built. Although partially ruined because of damage caused by earthquakes and stone-robbers, the Colosseum is still an iconic symbol of Imperial Rome. It is one of Rome's most popular tourist attractions and has also links to the Roman Catholic Church, as each Good Friday the Pope leads a torch-lit "Way of the Cross" procession that starts in the area around the Colosseum.

WORLD AFFAIRS COUNCIL OF PALM BEACH, INC.

Enhancing International Understanding

The World Affairs Council of Palm Beach opened its 4th season Tuesday, October 18, 2016 at the Colony Palm Beach Pavilion Room.

Dr. Mehmet Gurses, Associate Professor, Dept of Political Science at Florida Atlantic University, addressed an enthusiastic audience of 150 members and guests on "Turkey: Before and After the Coup". His discussion, often with personal references to his Kurdish ethnic ancestry, gave detailed insight into Turkey's radical change from a Secular Democracy to an Islamist State. Since the U.S continues to maintain air bases in Turkey, Dr. Gurses noted how carefully the U.S. must tread in its diplomatic relations with the Turkish Islamist regime.

On Tuesday, November 1, 2016 at the Colony Palm Beach Pavilion Room, Bryan Riley addressed an audience of 170 World Affairs Council members and guests. Riley, a scholar with the Heritage Foundation, spoke about the value of Free Open Trade. He discussed how heavy government regulations stop the flow and balance of international trade - and noted that US trade agreements, such as NAFTA, cannot be implemented unilaterally but must be set and approved by Congress.
