Great Day at the Palm Beach Yacht Club...

To honor Veteran's Day, the Palm Beach Yacht Club had hosted a very special luncheon for members attending to honor United States Veterans and to hear remarks from Lieutenant General Robert Chelberg (retired), commenting on current local issues with our veterans' well-being and world issues. The main topic over lunch was Cyber-Security. The Palm Beach Yacht Club & Marina had several military officials present, to note Brigadier General Albin F. Irzyk, WWII Tank Commander was honored at the luncheon. There was a Vietnam helicopter and several military vehicles by Mike Carroll's Project 425, the club's raised over $10,000 in donations from their members to the Wounded Warriors of South Florida Fund.

beckons. Nearby cases glitter with fine 14 and 18 karat jewelry, as well as signed costume pieces from Kenneth Lane, Christian LaCroix, Valentino, Robert Lee Morris and Iradj Moini.

Silk scarves by Hermes, Gucci and Versace share shelf space with an incredible array of designer bags by Dior, Prada, Ferragamo, Leiber - well, you get the picture. And what a picture it is!

Ronnie and Katie - always available but never intrusive - will point you in the right direction, or assist in finding exactly what you are looking for among well sized, well ordered racks of designer evening wear; custom fur coats and jackets; day dresses and suit ensembles; and tops, sweaters and jackets with labels such as Lanvin, Chanel, Cavalli, Dior and Pucci, to name just a fractional few. And this luxe boutique carries fashionable designer pieces in all sizes, from smalls to extra larges.

Accessories abound among hats, belts, shawls and scarves, kid gloves and designer sunglasses with such names as Tom Ford, Escada, Kokin, Gucci and more.

The shop's six foot shoe wall is bursting with showstopping designer shoes, with names like Jimmy Choo, Louboutin, and Cavalli.

And - when you have found exactly what you have been searching for - you can pick up a gift for a favourite girlfriend or for the man in your life. Whether a Strongwater frame, an Hermes necktie, a delicate Limoges Box or a Rolex watch - you can make someone else very happy too!

And remember to visit the Paradise Lost Showroom (next-door to Echo on Sunrise Avenue) for that perfect table, chair, lamp, mirror or accent piece from our ever growing home décor collection - again from Palm Beach's finest homes.

Happy Consignment shopping to you and yours this Holiday Season and throughout the New Year, from all of us at Paradise Lost Palm Beach!

During Palm Beach's long, hot Summer, Paradise Lost - the island's largest consignment business - ever-so-quietly opened its luxury annex on popular Sunrise Avenue. Located next-door to Patrick Lézé Parisian Bakery and across from Echo Restaurant, the designer boutique keeps very good company.

The shop highlights only the best designer items from Paradise Lost's most fashionable consignors, including names like Cartier, Tiffany, Louis Vuitton, Chanel, Hermes, Gucci, and Prada, with special focus on limited editions and other one-of-a-kind items.

Upon entering, one is greeted by three elegantly attired mannequins (the boutique's "Three Graces"), beyond which, a wall of Chanel bags, shoes, scarves, and jewelry

WORLD AFFAIRS COUNCIL OF PALM BEACH, INC.

Enhancing International Understanding

On Tuesday, December 1, 2015, Michelle Van Cleave, former Head of U.S. Counterintelligence, spoke at the Colony Palm Beach Pavilion Room to an overflow, standing-room-only record-breaking crowd of 230 World Affairs Council Members and Guests.

She discussed how important covert operations are in maintaining the safety and security of America. Van Cleave gave an in depth analysis of the compromises that have occurred in the NSA in the past few years and how these compromises and “leaks” have directly affected Homeland Security, weakened America’s standing around the world and thus have aided terrorist networks.

A Michelin Star for Blue Bay Restaurant

MONTE-CARLO
SOCIÉTÉ DES BAINS DE MER

On October 5th, 2015, seven Great Chefs from the Société des Bains de Mer Group made a date to come and blow out the 10 candles on the Monte-Carlo Bay Hotel & Resort's birthday cake: an encounter at the summit of fine dining with Michelin-starred Marcel Ravin as conductor-in-chief of this celebration on the slightly off-the wall concept, "the Drunch".

The "Drunch", the brainchild of Michelin-starred Chef Marcel Ravin, somehow resulted in an unequalled blend of the influences of the Caribbean and the spirit of the Riviera. Thanks to the talent and creativity of Chef Marcel Ravin, the Monte-Carlo Bay Hôtel & Resort now boasts membership in the club of elite gourmet restaurants.

This honor recognizes the efforts made by Executive Chef Marcel Ravin, who accepted the challenge from General Manager Sergio Mangini to earn a Michelin star. Originally from the Caribbean, Marcel Ravin has been brilliantly running the restaurant Blue Bay in Monaco since 2005. This first Michelin star for the gourmet restaurant Blue Bay, which celebrated its 10th anniversary this year, is an honor and the harbinger of a creative future, propelling the gastronomic restaurant among the top restaurants in Monaco.

GUY CLARK INTERIORS

PALM BEACH – NEW YORK

Inspired by classical architecture, past and present fashion trends, and especially the Art Deco period, Guy can find perfect beauty almost anywhere he looks.

Guy grew up in New York and Vermont, before graduating from The Northfield Mount Hermon School, and then Syracuse University with a degree in Marketing and Quantitative Analysis.

After having worked successfully in the jewelry industry for such notable houses as Cartier and DeBeers, Guy started his own Interior Design firm in 1999. Instant success came with notable clients from Wall Street, the British Royal Family, Hollywood Personalities, and New York Society.

As a recognized design personality on TV in the USA and also in Sweden, Guy is known for his unique style that is both classical and fresh, modern yet very sophisticated. He brings a specialized design approach and his glamorous style to every design project. Every home he designs becomes a perfect blend of what the client wishes with what the home craves, in order to create an individualized and stylish interior.

Notable projects include a 112' Swan sailing yacht, homes in Majorcia -Spain, Park Avenue- New York City, Vero Beach- Florida, Bartlesville- Oklahoma, Stockholm- Sweden, and Southampton- New York, to name just a few.

Guy is a well known and current resident of New York City, Vero Beach Florida, and Forestburgh N.Y., but he is most proud to be a new permanent resident of Palm Beach! (His office at 350 South County Road is by appointment)

“Light up Fall! Mix and match your candles for a cozy look!”

The large patterned silk rug and the custom wallpaper were each designed by Guy Clark, and to add a sense of modern luxury to the vintage sofa, lighting and chairs

The custom designed sofa and chairs by Guy Clark mix well with the antique lighting, rug and tables for a warm and welcoming feeling.

The golden silk drapery fabric inspired the hand painted wall murals that were designed by Guy Clark, and together with the custom boissiere they create a very sumptuous flow to the room

The Guy Clark designed goatskin and steel table and chairs are a perfect marriage to the custom designed chandelier for a dramatic yet sophisticated room

Different tones of lavender and purple mix together perfectly with silver and white for an elegant, tranquil and yet very stylish bedroom. A custom designed bed and bedside tables by Guy Clark complete the look.

Eleven layers of hand painted wall treatments gave depth and life to the room, while also enhancing the matching colors from the Chinoiserie fabrics and the custom designed artwork.

THE RICH HISTORY BEHIND NEW YORK CITY'S ICONIC LOEWS REGENCY HOTEL

Loews Regency Hotel has defined Park Avenue hospitality from the moment it opened its doors in 1963. Built by Robert “Bob” and Lawrence “Larry” Tisch, Loews Regency reclaimed its prominence in Midtown Manhattan when it reopened on January 16, 2014 following a one-year, $100 million renovation.

The iconic Loews Regency Hotel reopened on January 16, 2014 following an extensive revitalization. The transformed property features 379 guest rooms including 58 suites; The Regency Bar & Grill, home of the “Power Breakfast” by Sant Ambroeus Hospitality Group; and the new flagship salon of the famed hairstylist Julien Farel, which incorporates a premier spa. Located in the heart of Midtown Manhattan on Park Avenue, Loews Regency offers exceptional service and world-class amenities, optimal for conducting business or taking advantage of the city’s best shopping, cultural experiences, and dining. For reservations or more information about Loews Regency, call 1-800-23-LOEWS or visit:

www.loewshotels.com/Regency-Hotel.

The landmark hotel’s redesign includes 321 apartment-styled guestrooms and 58 suites, four private meeting spaces, and the Julien Farel Restore Salon & Spa flagship. In December 2014, Loews Regency Hotel debuted its six designer-inspired Signature Suites created by New York City’s finest talents, including Nate Berkus Associates, Meyer Davis Studio Inc., Rottet Studio and Haynes-Roberts, Inc.

'VILLA STÉPHANIE' – THE DESTINATION SPA OF BRENNERS PARK-HOTEL & SPA

OPENED 15.01.15

BRENNERS PARK-RESTAURANT

SECOND MICHELIN STAR FOR PAUL STRADNER

Paul Stradner, Head Chef of Brenners Park-Restaurant, can be delighted with the award of his second Michelin star. As a result, he is one of the youngest two-starred chefs in Germany.

The first cause for celebration came in November 2012 – only a few months after the master chef assumed his position in Baden-Baden. The latest honour is, at the same time, commendation for the renowned Brenners Park-Hotel & Spa, one of the jewels in the Oetker Collection's crown.

In Germany as a whole, only three restaurants were promoted by the Michelin Guide to two-star status. As a result, the Brenners Park-Restaurant is now in Germany's Top 49 and occupies first place in the Baden-Baden area. The additional star further strengthens the state of Baden-Württemberg's claim as being a gourmets' paradise.

The career of the young head chef is built on a foundation of more than twelve years of professional experience in Europe's best restaurants. Paul Stradner's tutors and mentors were the three Michelin-starred chefs Harald Wohlfahrt, Schwarzwaldstube Baiersbronn, and Jean-Georges Klein, Restaurant L'Arnsbourg in Baerenthal.

Frank Marrenbach, General Manager of Brenners Park-Hotel & Spa:

"I am immensely proud of Mr. Stradner who, in the past year, has worked extremely hard for this award and has now received the recognition he deserves. My sincere congratulations and thanks go to him personally as well as to the entire Park-Restaurant team who have given him outstanding support during this time."
