LAWRENCE HERBERT

Lawrence Herbert was the chairman and chief executive officer of Pantone, Inc., the world's premiere color standards company and color authority. He was the driving creative force behind inventing a variety of color systems which have become the standards for global communication of color in the printing, publishing, packaging, graphic arts, paint, plastics, coatings, computer, film, video, textiles and fashion industries.=

Following military service in Korea during the war 1951 to 1953, Herbert returned to New York and took what he thought was a temporary job at Pantone, Inc. while waiting to attend medical school. At the time, Pantone's major business was producing color charts for cosmetics, fashion, industrial and medical firms. Fascinated by the challenge of developing a universal color specification system, Lawrence Herbert abandoned his plans for medical school and set about curing the color ills of industry.

Herbert joined Pantone in 1956 as a color matcher and bought the company in 1962. In 1963 he invented the world-renowned PANTONE® MATCHING SYSTEM®. Herbert operated his multinational company from a large facility in New Jersey with branches in the U.K., Germany, Hong Kong and China. The firm is best known for the universal color standards and global color language provided by its publications, software, hardware and related products and services.

Industry recognition for his inventions, improvements and technical contributions to the printing industry won Lawrence Herbert the Hall of Fame Award from the New Jersey Advertising Hall of Fame and the Gold Medal from Britain's Institute of Printing. In 1995, the Association of the Graphic Arts presented Herbert with the very prestigious "Power of Printing" Award, "In recognition of his positive influence, creative excellence, exceptional leadership and outstanding achievements throughout the international graphic communications industry." In 2001, Herbert received the Platinum Corporate Legend Award from Pratt Institute "for his outstanding contributions to the worlds of design, fashion, art and architecture."

Herbert serves on the Boards of the New York City Ballet and the American Film Institute and is a substantial supporter of many cultural institutions and health charities. He has received the National Ethnic Coalition of Organizations Ellis Island Gold Medal of Honor and was appointed to the City of New York Cultural Advisory Board by Mayor Giuliani and to the New York State Council on the Arts by Governor Pataki. Herbert was named the Corporate Honoree by the School of American Ballet and was honored by Career Transition for Dancers for his "Outstanding Contributions to the World of Dance."

Michele, Lawrence & Loren Herbert at American Film Institute

Herbert holds a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Biology and Chemistry from Hofstra University '51. He also received its Alumni Achievement Award, Distinguished Service Award and Alumnus of the Year Award. He was elected to Hofstra's Board of Trustees in 1980 and was Vice Chairman of the board from 1982-1986. Herbert earned an Honorary Doctorate of Humane Letters from the university and they inaugurated the Lawrence Herbert Distinguished Professorship Chair in his honor. Most recently Hofstra named its School of Communication for Lawrence Herbert.

MICHELE HERBERT

A former dancer, actress and television talk show host, Michele Herbert is the wife of Lawrence Herbert, former owner and CEO of Pantone Inc.

An avid philanthropist and well-known supporter of various cultural and research organizations, she serves as an Ambassador for Same Sky, she's on the Advisory Council of the School of American Ballet, the New York Center for Children, the Board of Trustees of the Miami City Ballet, The Rita Hayworth Gala, among others as well.

In October of 2009, she was a Chair for Career Transition for Dancers 24th Anniversary Jubilee, and is regularly involved in their efforts to enable dancers to define their career possibilities and develop the skills necessary to excel in a variety of disciplines. She will be a chair again this September in New York for the 30th Anniversary of CTFD.

Michele Herbert Career Transition for Dancers 26th Jubilee 2011

Michele is on a mission to help fund research that will identify Alzheimer's at its earliest stages. "Alzheimer's disease is something that we really have to champion as women. What would be amazing is to uncover why younger brains get ravaged by this disease, and bring us closer to a cure" said Michele.

She has been on The New York Rita Hayworth Gala Steering Committee since 1987, and has chaired the event three times. She recently committed a substantial gift to support critical research into gender vulnerabilities in Alzheimer's and why women are disproportionately ravaged by this disease. She hopes that all women will come together now to fund this important research and find a cure as this is a woman's movement and it is up to us!

On a more personal note, Mrs. Herbert loves color. When Peter Marino designed their Park Avenue apartment, she made sure the colors flattered the face. The bedroom? Peach. She believes that the colors in your home are as important as the colors you wear.

Michele Herbert, the stylish Palm Beach & New York philanthropist, has a knack for throwing unforgettable events, from cocktail soirees in New York City, to extravagant galas in Palm Beach. For a birthday party in Palm Beach for her husband Larry, she planned an elaborate weekend-long event featuring Pattie Labelle and dancers from Dancing with the Stars. Michele's ability for bringing people together and networking, make her a staple on the New York & Palm Beach scene. She has a passion for her family, friends, and the causes she supports.

New York Comes to Palm Beach, for a Good Cause

CHILDREN

To kick off the 20th anniversary of the New York Center for Children, long-time board member Lauren Vernon, of Rumson, New Jersey, hosted an intimate cocktail party and dinner at the Palm Beach home of social fixture Carlos Morrison. The event was co-hosted by Morrison's brother, Henry Buhl, and attended by a colorful collection of Palm Beach and New York elite. In attendance were new Palm Beach arrival Missy De Bellis Rappaille and her husband, Dr. Clotaire, a French count; fashion designer Harrison Morgan and his partner; interior decorator Guy Clark, both supporters of the NYCC Junior Committee; and Bettina Bennett, co-chair of the NYCC Junior Committee and young philanthropist, Nicole DiCocco, a Junior Committee member; among others.

In lieu of gifts, Ms. Vernon requested a donation to the NYCC, which provides therapy free of charge to abused and neglected children in the five boroughs of New York City. "It has never been a more challenging time for a small non-profit organization, but NYCC really is too small to fail," she says. "Without us, these children have nowhere else to turn."

Later that evening, the group migrated to Buccan for a lavish meal, where NYCC supporter (and former president) Michele Herbert generously donated $15,000 to the Center. Diets were thrown out the window as the group indulged festively in heavy hors d'oeuvres and an endless river of Champagne.

"The celebration continues on April 15th, with our annual cocktail party at the Peninsula, where we hope to raise $100,000," says the birthday girl. "All of our supporters are welcome."

17th Annual Old Bags Luncheon Raises More than $500,000 Event Features Legendary Personality, Joan Collins

Joan Collins with Co-Chairs Janet Levy and Debbie Porreco

Joan Collins

Internationally acclaimed actress and author Joan Collins mesmerized a sold-out crowd of more than 550 at the 17th Annual Old Bags Luncheon on March 5, 2015 at The Breakers Palm Beach.

The event, which raised more than $500,000, benefits The Center for Family Services of Palm Beach County and their efforts to end the generational cycle of family violence, protecting the child and strengthening the family.

“We are incredibly grateful for the support of so many,” said Janet Levy who co-chaired the event with Debbie Porreco. “We were able to fill the room and raise much needed money to support the programs the Center brings to families in a time of need.”

Added Levy, “We were equally thrilled with Joan Collins, who was a spectacular speaker. She instantly connected with the crowd. She was elegant, engaging and kept the audience thoroughly entertained while speaking on her career, life and passions.”

Other highlights from the event included the opportunity to bid on more than 400 stunning new and used designer handbags in the silent auction, Manolo Blahnik models showcasing the footwear on platters throughout the event, and the opportunity to bid on either a Manolo Blahnik shopping spree or a specially designed piece of jewelry from Diamante valued at $18,000.

Event co-chairs Levy and Porreco and honorary chairs Lorrain Hall, Soula Rifkin, and Linda Adelson also extended a special show of gratitude to sponsors, including Platinum Corporate Fashion Benefactor Neiman Marcus who committed for three years to the event and the Center; PNC Bank; and Palm Beach Illustrated Magazine.

Notable guests in attendance included: Herme De Wyman Miro, Lisa Erdmann, Arlette Gordon, Patricia Graham, Toni Holt Kramer, Aneliese Langer, Erin McGould, Donna Mulholland, Patty Myura, Melissa Parker, Beth Pine, Tammy Pompea, Lois Pope, Judi Richards, Ari Rifkin, Wendy Roberts, Julie Rudolph, Kitty Silverstein, Sonja Stevens, Amie Swan, Karen Swanson, and Gail Worth.

Palm Beach Wine Auction Raises Nearly $450,000 for Children's Arts Education

KRAVIS CENTER EDUCATION PROGRAMS TO BENEFIT FROM THE 2015 PALM BEACH WINE AUCTION

8th Annual Palm Beach Wine Auction features lively bidding paired with gourmet fare

Ted and Cindy Mandes

Some 220 guests filled Mar-a-Lago Club's ballroom on January 29 for a sold-out evening of lively bidding and exquisite food and wine that raised nearly $450,000 net for children's art education programs at the Raymond F. Kravis Center for the Performing Arts in West Palm Beach.

"Tonight when you raise your paddle, you are making an investment in arts education for the next generation of children as well as investing in fine wines and once-in-a-lifetime experiences," said Auction Chair Ted Mandes. "The value of this evening is not just in the bottle or the trip but it is in the value of experiencing the joy the performing arts give children. Arts education fuels their imaginations and expands their lives forever."

In total, the event featured 52 lots of remarkable wines and spirits from around the globe, exceptional luxury travel experiences and unique treasures all sold under the direction of Michael Troise, retired Auction Director for NYWines/Christie's Fine and Rare Wine Department.

Throughout the bidding, guests sampled sublime fare from a who's who of award-winning chefs, including Zach Bell, Addison Reserve Country Club, Delray Beach; Bogdan Boerean and Graham Randall, The Mar-a-Lago Club, Palm Beach; Philip Bollhoefer, OMNI Asheville/Grove Park Inn; Joshua Hasho, OMNI Denver/Interlocken Resort & Spa; Douglas Katz, fire food and drink, The Katz Club Diner and Provenance at Cleveland Museum of Art; Trevor Kunk, PRESS, Napa Valley; Joe Mercuri and Athiraj Phrasavath, Mercuri, Montreal and Cameron Pishner, fire food and drink and The Katz Club Diner. Vintner participants for the dinner included The House of Krug, Rudd Oakville Estate, Adobe Road Winery, Antinori Family Wine Estate and Warre's.

The 2015 Palm Beach Wine Auction Chair was Ted Mandes.
