Valentina Kraver

My early childhood was spent growing up in a suburb of Columbus, Ohio. However, as a native Floridian, I am naturally drawn to the sun and sea. My fundamental values are: being down to earth, straight forward and being connective with people. As a young child, I have always loved the arts, gymnastics and jazz dancing. My greatest joy is to bring happiness to others with a simple compliment, a kind word or a gift of inspiration. I have always had a great deal of positivity without a ceiling. The sky is the limit! Where there is a will, there is always a way! Always believe in YOU and reach for the stars! Don't have ANY expectations and all you will get in this life is a gift, good or bad. Always be kind and grateful because nothing is a given.

I moved back to Miami Beach in 1989 and was lucky to experience the classic look of South Beach lined with the original Art Deco hotels lining the blue azure coast and beaches filled with the variety of different peoples that flocked there. After having been a witness to this wonderful transformation of Architecture, Fashion, Design and Luxury Real Estate, it ignited a fire and passion in me to create a perfect domicile.

I studied Interior Design at Miami International University of Art and Design where I received an Associate of Arts Degree in Interior Design. My skills and abilities led me to design penthouses and residences for numerous famous clients.

The job that I am most proud of is having created and designed a masterpiece 12 room Old World Style waterfront estate at 4 Palm Island which became our home. I created a "new" Old World European domicile which was the epitome of luxury, design and warmth that was named Casa de Sole Mare.

For me, Real Estate has such a personal meaning. I take great passion in matching the right client with the right home that embodies their lifestyle and personality. Home is where family, love and life flourish. My Goal with each client is to provide a concierge level of service in the realm of luxury real estate. My background in interior design, architecture and art gives me a vision of staging a home exquisitely or finding that perfect HOME.

Live at Lynn

In the beautiful Keith C. and Elaine Johnson Wold Performing Arts Center in Boca Raton, internationally acclaimed Christine Andreas celebrated the legendary life and music of chanteuse Edith Piaf, who was known for her total disdain for the ordinary and the dramatic life she lived with great passion and joie de vivre. On March 30/31 in the Live at Lynn series at Lynn University, Andreas alternated between telling of Piaf's resilient heart and transforming into her with crystal clear resonance. A performance to remember, the guests included Jacqueline Gill, Etoile Volin, Arlene Herson, Rosalie Schlegel, Maya Johnson of PBTI Magazine, Holli Rockwell Trubinsky and Joe Trubinsky, Ann and Rick Sommer, Dr. Maria Spinak and Charlie Rubinstein, cabaret performer Deborah Silver with husband Larry Silver, Sony and Bob Berman, and the incomparable series producer Jan McArt.

The following week, producer Jan McArt presented Mark Nadler in the Live at Lynn cabaret series at Lynn University in a brilliant rendition of Cole Porter After Dark. As part of the cabaret series from The Mabel Mercer Foundation at Lincoln Center in New York, Mark Nadler explored the charming lyrics and wit of the brilliant composer to create a swell party that only Cole Porter could. A small after-party in the Green Room included Holli Rockwell Trubinsky and Joe Trubinsky, Tammy and Richard Morgenstern, Etoile Volin and Isabel Paul, Arlene Herson and Shari Upbin chatting with the incomparable Mark Nadler himself.
