I recently opened my location here in Palm Beach after coming to US from Milan to participate in various Art and Antique shows for many years.

It was wonderful to be back at the Palm Beach Jewelry, Art and Antique show this month and meet with all my old clients and interior designer friends from all over the world.

I really came to realize there is a definite market for Scandinavian and Swedish painted furniture in pastel colors especially here in South Florida.

I am very much looking forward to welcoming clients with taste and appreciation for high quality antiques to my shop!

World-renowned dealers spark strong sales and record attendance at the 9TH ANNUAL PALM BEACH JEWELRY, ART & ANTIQUE SHOW

Tens of thousands of savvy collectors, industry experts and serious buyers flocked to the Palm Beach County Convention Center February 17-21 for the annual return of the Palm Beach Jewelry, Art & Antique Show. The show reached a record number of attendees and sales in the history of the show including selling out the parking lot each day. With the collections of more than 180 world-renowned dealers on display, the show featured a broad spectrum of items available for purchase.

"We have exceeded all expectations for this year's Palm Beach Show with the best attendance and sales in the history of the show", said Scott Diament, President and CEO of The Palm Beach Show Group. "This show is a significant cultural event that has been brought to Palm Beach County for nine consecutive years, and we are pleased to host it every year."

The Hope for Depression Research Foundation (HDRF), founded by Audrey Gruss was the show's charity sponsor adding new features to the show incorporating design into real lifestyles of today. A champagne reception was held on Friday's Preview Evening to showcase a special room with five vignettes designed by nationally-acclaimed AD 100 interior designers; Scott Snyder, Jim Aman & John Meeks, Bruce Bierman, Geoffrey Bradfield and Campion Platt.

"All the supporters I spoke to were delighted to walk through the Hope Designer Showcase. It was a wonderful way for them to see how art and antiques from the show work in today's real lifestyles," said Gruss, founder of HDRF. "We at HDRF were so pleased to partner with such an exciting, successful event. After all, the show is about creativity and beauty, and it's wonderful to see how it can enhance your life."

Sales were strong throughout the show and dealers were once again pleased with the array of serious collectors shopping the show floor.

"By far the best show ever with the quality attendance in our booth. Show seems to be up 30% higher than it was last year," said David Rosenberg, President of Rosenberg Diamonds. "Our sales have been in the seven figures."

"It was a great crowd, they were extremely educated in what they were looking for," said Nick Boston from Nick & Martine Boston Antiques.

Next year's Palm Beach Jewelry, Art & Antique Show will be held Presidents' Day weekend, February 15-19, 2013, at the Palm Beach County Convention Center.

ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION

Solving The Neurological Puzzle Raises over $ 350,000.00 for the first inaugural event

Gala chair Janet Levy with Jay Leno & Hermé de Wyman Miro

On Saturday, February 25, the University of Miami, Department of Neurology, had their first major fundraiser in Palm Beach at the Breakers Hotel.

Janet Levy and Cindy Feltenstein were co-chairs of this spectacular evening of dinner, dancing and entertainment by Jay Leno.

The evening began with a cocktail reception in a beautifully decorated Mediterranean ballroom. VIPs, which consisted of major donor and ticket holders were escorted into the Florentine room which had been transformed into a chic nightclub atmosphere for cocktails and hor'deuvres. The affable Jay Leno appeared and lingered to chat with guests and have their photos taken with him.

After cocktails, guests entered the magnificent Venetian room. Michael Williams, news anchor of WPPTV, introduced Donna Shalala, President of the University of Miami, who spoke about how the University, under the guidance of Department chair Ralph Sacco and Miller School of Medicine Dean Pascal Goldschmidt, has successfully increased their neurology department rating to number 33 out of 1,300 national ranked neurology departments in the U.S., according to U.S. News & World Report.

Jay Leno had the crowd in stitches as he delivered a half hour comedy act. A gracious Jay Leno not only personally donated $10,000 to the University of Miami in honor of the Gala's co-chair Janet Levy, but used his auctioneer talents to raise thousands more for the neurological department and even generously donated almost 200 VIP tickets with back stage passes to the "Tonight Show" to anyone who bought them for the auction bid price of $500.00. Michael Williams then topped the night off by raising over $35,000 in less than 10 minutes.

This is her goal at Boca Nursing Services, which she launched 18 years ago after spending time as a registered nurse who worked with private patients. "Continuity is very important to our clients," Glamoclija says. "It's comforting to know that someone who understands what you need and want is always available to help."

To help ensure continuity of care and provide peace of mind for her patients and their families, Glamoclija developed a team approach designed to provide each client with a team of caregivers. "When I first meet with a patient, I immediately have an idea of which caregivers will make the best team," she says. "We've discovered that there is a high degree of patient satisfaction that results from matching the right team to the patient."

At Boca Nursing Services, it's not unusual for a team of caregivers to stay with a patient for many years. "Whether they're at home or in the hospital, our clients are able to live more enjoyable lives thanks to the team approach," Glamoclija says.
