It's Not Too Early to Note These End of the Year Tax Tips

Caroline Harless, Harless & Associates

As the year comes to a close, your thoughts more likely turn to holiday celebrations than tax preparation. However, preparing for April 15th should begin now so that the process can go as quickly and smoothly as possible.

Here are a few tips to make reporting easier and lower your tax liability as much as possible:

- Hold onto the records that support items reported on your tax return and prove income and expenses for at least three years.
- If you own a home or investment property, keep records for expenses including home improvements for at least three years after you have sold or disposed of the property.
- You can defer some of your income until the next tax year and at the same time accelerate upcoming deductions into the current year. If you've had a high earning year, this can balance things out.
- Avoid a shortfall by increasing your withholding now. This can help you get caught up before the end-of-year tax tally.
- Decrease your income tax liability by making the maximum contribution to your 401(k) or IRA. This year, that is $17,500 for 401(k) and $5,500 for IRA.
- Consider converting your traditional IRA to a Roth IRA, which means you can pay tax now on the conversion, but no taxes in the future.
- It's the holiday season, so why not give a gift. Gifts of up to $14,000 are tax free, and that number goes up when two spouses are involved.

Letter from the Editor

Greetings & Welcome Back!

Dear Readers to what promises to be another wonderful winter season here in Palm Beach.

The summer, with its many events, & travels far and wide, had us experiencing a myriad of parties with definitive themes.

The Red Cross Ball in Monte Carlo, which is always such a pleasure for me to cover here in these pages, was hosted by the Grimaldi royals and the glowing expectant "mother-to-be"; Princess Charlene.

A Hollywood themed costume party held in Tuxedo Park, harkened back to the days of the golden era. The Rita Hayworth, Alzheimer's Association Ball in New York heightened our social awareness and reminded us that Alzheimer's, as other diseases are non discriminatory. Closer to home, Camp Boggy Creek welcomed more than 7,000 children afflicted by serious illness, thus bringing some joy into the lives of those youngsters.

Europe this summer held its usual array of cultural happenings from Germany, to Paris, Brussels, Madrid, & Bruges. Art, fashion & beauty to capture ones attention: thrill us and stimulate us; was at the forefront, once again reminding us all "not to focus in on the bugs, but rather on the butterflies" and be so very grateful for the beauty and positive things we all have in our lives.

I am grateful for my new dog, "Sweetie", a magnificent Cavalier King Charles Spaniel, who has brought much joy & exuberance into my life, and who has been graciously welcomed by the community. Hence, I join him in warmly welcoming you, back to Palm Beach for another "positively splendid" season!

This is her goal at Boca Nursing Services, which she launched 18 years ago after spending time as a registered nurse who worked with private patients. "Continuity is very important to our clients," Glamoclija says. "It's comforting to know that someone who understands what you need and want is always available to help."

To help ensure continuity of care and provide peace of mind for her patients and their families, Glamoclija developed a team approach designed to provide each client with a team of caregivers. The 66th Monaco Red Cross Gala

H.S.H. Prince Albert II, H.S.H. Princess Charlene

In the Presence of H.S.H. Prince Albert II, President of the Monaco Red Cross and H.S.H. Princess Charlene, the 66th Monaco Red Cross Gala was held at the Sporting Monte-Carlo, which celebrated its 40 years of creating a legend.

Encouraged by the commitments and deep personal convictions of its President, H.S.H Prince Albert II, the Monaco Red Cross, perpetually turned towards helping others, remains dynamic in its respect of its humanitarian and universal ideal. In this idea, the Monaco Red Cross Gala offers moments of sharing, unity and togetherness in an exceptional ephemeral setting.

This year, Sandrine Quétier – dressed in Haute Couture house Akris – presented the Gala and host the Tombola with outstanding musician, composer and producer Marcus Miller, named UNESCO Artist for Peace and spokesperson for The Slave Route project. The undisputed star of female vocal jazz, Diana Krall, opened the Ball. The sultry pianist and singer interpreted with her natural sensuality some of the greatest hits of Jazz.

WHY ARE CELEBRITIES ADMIRING MASHA ARCHER'S JEWELRY?

Masha's jewelry is distinctive and eye-catching - not only does it turn heads when one walks into the room, it photographs brilliantly! Some pieces even contain materials that possess a specific light play feature, glowing, shimmering, or changing color under different kinds of light, including flash. The same necklace can transform any outfit, making the plainest suit spectacular, or adding a colorful, artistic flair to a ball gown. This makes them great for the jet setting lifestyle: simply adding a Masha piece to an outfit can transform it from inconspicuous to spotlight-worthy. Being wearable art, rather than mere objects of fashion, Masha pieces never go out of style. And once seen, they are unforgettable. A necklace made 30 years ago has the same beauty and fascination today as it did at its creation. A celebrity never has to worry that she (or he! Men look great in Masha, too!) is being seen and photographed in something that anyone else has also been seen and photographed in, because every Masha piece is one-of-a-kind. Nor will their Masha pieces eventually seem dated or outmoded. Like all great art, Masha jewelry gets better with age.

Masha has shown at the San Francisco Opera Shop for 25 years. In 2009 her daughter Larissa wrote and edited a book of photographs (also titled 'The Ritual of the Eye') chronicling her life and career in her many arts. She considers her jewelry designs to be the culmination of her artistic and cultural heritage.

Lydia Sudick Fine Art

Art Dealer & Appraiser Lydia Sudick with 17th century Italian painting by Luca Giordano, titled; "Allegory of Fame"

Approximately 100 art enthusiasts were in attendance at the Lydia Sudick Fine Art Gallery, of Hobe Sound, Florida, for the vernissage and retrospective of the Baroness Waltraud von Schwarzbek's paintings on May 1, 2014. Ms Sudick, an art dealer and appraiser, who over the past 23 years has specialized in Old Masters paintings, chose a living artist for her gallery's inaugural exhibition. Her former gallery in Montecito, California dealt in primarily Italian, French & Dutch paintings of the 17th & 18th centuries. Hence, why the departure for the gallerist and appraiser; who also at the moment has a stunning Old Master painting of an angel, titled, "Allegory of Fame", on offer, by the 17th century Neapolitan painter, Luca Giordano which dates from around 1650?

The answer is simple. When the Baroness & Ms. Sudick met, they instantly recognized in each other that both had their love of art, and their professional lives in the art world, steeped within the Old Master tradition. Baroness von Schwarzbek was trained and studied classically in Munich, Germany, and paints in the Old Master tradition. Her floral still life pieces have been compared to those of the great masters, such as Jan van Huysum, Jan van Kessel & Abraham Bosschaert. Her stellarly impressive, and hallmark original work, titled, "Nature's Wonder", is the centerpiece for the exhibit at Lydia Sudick Fine Art, and will be on view and offer throughout the season of 2014-2015. Only YOU

HOTEL & LOUNGE
MADRID

Only You Hotel & Lounge is designed for you, to make your stay in Madrid a unique experience, whether you're visiting the Spanish capital for business or pleasure. The hotel is located in the center of Madrid, on Calle Barquillo, just a few meters from Paseo de Recoletos and the Chueca neighborhood. The carefully designed interiors by Lázaro Rosa Violán complement the beauty of the building (a former Palace, dating from 19th century), giving the hotel an eccentric touch with colonial-style color.
