JAHJA LING

Jahja Ling’s distinguished career has earned him world-wide acclaim for his musical integrity and depth of expression. Now in his eighth season as Music Director of the San Diego Symphony, Mr. Ling has received the highest praise for his live performances, local and national broadcasts and recordings and recently the Orchestra has offered him an evergreen contract. Under his leadership, the San Diego Symphony has been designated as a Tier One major orchestra by the League of American Symphony Orchestras and reached a new level of unprecedented artistic excellence with its audience record attendance and balanced budget for the last eight years.

Born in Jakarta, Indonesia, of Chinese descent, Mr. Ling began to play the piano at age 4. Subsequently Mr. Ling earned a master’s degree from Juilliard and a doctor of musical arts degree from Yale University School of Music. Mr. Ling is the first and only conductor of Chinese descent who has conducted all of the major orchestras in the North America as well as most of the prominent orchestras in Asia and Europe.

LOLA ASTANOVA
World renowned pianist

Born in the former Soviet Union, Lola’s journey in music began at the age of six when her mother, a music teacher, gave Lola her first lessons.

By the age of eight Astanova began appearing as a performer, achieving first international note before she turned twelve. In 1996 Lola performance in Paris was featured in a UNESCO documentary Prodigies of the 20th Century. But Astanova’s promising young career had little chance to evolve in the aftermath of the Soviet collapse so she made a decision to move to America and start everything anew.

But it is her passion for performing, reminiscent of the Romantic age virtuosi, that remains Lola’s greatest love. It is fitting therefore that her Carnegie Hall debut paid a rich and profound debt to her Romantic roots with a special Tribute to Horowitz concert that took place on January 19, 2012. The concert, chaired by Donald Trump and hosted by Dame Julie Andrews, became a historic occasion as Astanova delivered a triumphant performance in front of a sold out crowd of three thousand. “...Ms. Astanova made a deep impression in her vivid tribute to Horowitz on his very own Steinway. She’s a true virtuoso in the old style,” wrote the Seattle Post Intelligencer. “...Astanova rocked Carnegie Hall... She danced with the piano!” exclaimed the New York Daily News. Following the concert Lola was honored with the prestigious Vladimir Horowitz Distinguished Artist Award.

Since achieving acclaim, Astanova has used her talent, time, and influence to support and bring attention to various charitable causes helping to raise funds for cancer research, New York’s 9/11 memorial, and constantly encouraging her fans to support local art and education initiatives. Outside of her music career and charitable work, Lola is a fashionista, a foodie and a lifelong soccer fan.

Rose Glamoclija understands as well as anyone the importance of dealing with health professionals who are focused on meeting the specific needs of the client.

This is her goal at Boca Nursing Services, which she launched 18 years ago after spending time as a registered nurse who worked with private patients. "Continuity is very important to our clients," Glamoclija says. "It's comforting to know that someone who understands what you need and want is always available to help."

To help ensure continuity of care and provide peace of mind for her patients and their families, Glamoclija developed a team approach designed to provide each client with a team of caregivers.

"When I first meet with a patient, I immediately have an idea of which caregivers will make the best team," she says. "We've discovered that there is a high degree of patient satisfaction that results from matching the right team to the patient."

At Boca Nursing Services, it's not unusual for a team of caregivers to stay with a patient for many years. "Whether they're at home or in the hospital, our clients are able to live more enjoyable lives thanks to the team approach," Glamoclija says.
