Hyacinth (18 months) wore a customed made dress by Cheri du viel of Paris, while Hudson (6 years) wore a traditional blue velvet bespoke suit from Seville Row in London.

Their parents Michelle-Marie Heinemann and Jon Heinemann clapped and cheered as the little ones danced into the wee hours of the night...while sipping sparkling cider and nibbling on mini cheese burgers, a Doubles classic! Michelle-Marie had special signature Valentine Bellinis made for the occasion for the adults and a beautiful Valentines Cake was presented by the most delightful staff, leaving the guests completely thrilled.

Guests included, Deirdre and son Ethan Bader, R. Couri Hay, Anne and daughter Ariella Baker, Barbara de Portago, Maria and Amalia Zameli, Natalie and daughters Natacha and Gabriella Ross, Vinnie Potestivo, Toby Faulkner, Brent and his son Griffin Bounds.

An evening in Palm Beach to benefit American Ballet Theatre

Saturday: March 23, 2013 |
at Kravis Center for the Performing Arts
Evening to include a performance of Agnes de Mille's Rodeo

Marcelo Gomes, Craig Saltein and Jared Matthews in Drink to Me Only With Thine Eyes

An Evening in Palm Beach, the annual fundraiser to benefit American Ballet Theatre that Palitz helped launch nine years ago, is scheduled for Saturday, March 23, 2013 at 5:30 p.m. at the Kravis Center for the Performing Arts. Patrick Park will serve as the Gala Grand Chair, with Palitz and Vicki and Chris Kellogg serving as event co-chairs. Debra Vasilopoulos is the evening's Corporate Chair.

The black tie evening begins at 5:30 p.m. with cocktails, followed by dinner in the Kravis Center's Cohen Pavilion. A Gala performance follows at 8 p.m., featuring the dancers of American Ballet Theatre and special guest pianist Lola Astanova playing two dazzling piano solos by Franz Liszt and Alexander Scriabin.

American Ballet Theatre's program at the Kravis Center includes Agnes de Mille's Rodeo, in celebration of the ballet's 70th anniversary; Mark Morris' Drink to Me Only With Thine Eyes; and the White Swan pas de deux from Swan Lake. Following the performance, guests of the event will enjoy dessert and dancing with ABT Company members at the Cohen Pavilion.

An Evening in Palm Beach is generously sponsored by lead sponsor Sabadell Bank and Trust and Go Figure Barre Studios.

2013 celebrates the 9th year of the Palm Beach event benefiting American Ballet Theatre. Benefit tickets, priced from $500, are available by calling 212-477-3030, ext. 3311.

Letter from the Editor

Dear Readers,

Friends of Palm Beach Today International Society magazine! I am so excited about this current issue: every page is a treasure for us! We start our magazine with the cover and the coverage of The 56th International Red Cross Ball in Palm Beach, Florida.

Most of you probably aware about our publication featuring Monaco Red Cross Gala for the last 12 years, usually at the beginning of August in Monte Carlo. Doing the coverage of The Red Cross Gala in Palm Beach, in our publication, gave us a great joy and we are honored to work with General Chairman The Honorable Mary M. Ourisman, Chairman, American Red Cross The Honorable Bonnie McElveen-Hunter, Co-Chairmen & etc.

We opened a new feature called "Person of the moment", this time we are sharing with you an extra ordinary Lady Jan Mc Art (Director, Theatre Arts Development). You will find more current social events such as: Cancer Gala (American Cancer Society) 100 years Anniversary, Miami City Ballet.

Cleveland Clinic Florida Presents MIAMI NIGHTS celebrating Florida's 25 TH Anniversary.

Thank you for your continued support as we work together!

held their second annual Palm Beach benefit luncheon at Club Colette on January 31st. As guests strolled through the front door they were welcomed into a beautiful room decorated with large colorful butterfly balloons covering the ceiling and the table centerpieces.

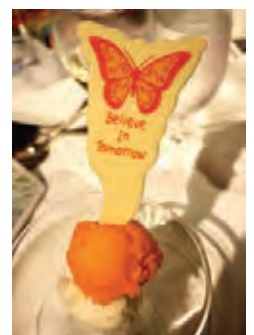

The event was highlighted with a fabulous fashion show by Emilio Pucci presenting the Resort 2013 collection accented with exquisite fine jewelry from Provident Jewelry. Bob Nichols, a well known auctioneer in South Florida emceed the luncheon and conducted the live auction which included luxurious items including art work, designer handbags, beautiful jewelry, and a celebrity chef. The guest speaker, Carmen Justiniano was accompanied by her young son, Natanael.

The family has experienced three of Believe In Tomorrow's respite housing facilities over the past six years as Natanael has been diagnosed with very high acute lymphoblastic leukemia and as he underwent a pediatric stem cell transplant.

Ari Rifkin and Dorothy Sullivan served as Honorary Chairwomen. Linda Adelson, Judi Richards, Soula Rifkin and Wendy Roberts were co-chairwomen.

The Believe In Tomorrow Children's Foundation is a national leader in pediatric hospital and respite housing services for critically ill children and their families. Additionally, the Foundation is one of the largest providers in the country of support services for military families. Since 1982, the eight pediatric national facilities have provided more than 600,000 overnight accommodations to these children and their families, from every state in the U.S. and over 76 countries world wide.

In the very near future, Believe In Tomorrow will be expanding their respite housing programs to the state of Florida by establishing a new respite facility within Palm Beach County for military pediatrics. Critically ill children whose parents serve in the U.S. Armed Forces will have the opportunity to enjoy a retreat in Florida through this new respite facility.

The 56th Annual International Red Cross Ball

Friday, February 8th

Ambassadors gather in Palm Beach for the 56th annual International Red Cross Ball honoring iconic American actress Dina Merrill

American Red Cross President and CEO Gail McGovern and Chairman of the Board Bonnie McElveen-Hunter welcomed over 450 guests including ambassadors from Iceland, Indonesia, Morocco, Portugal, The Netherlands and Singapore to the Venetian Ballroom of The Breakers Hotel in Palm Beach on Friday, February 8th for The 56th Annual International Red Cross Ball. The white-tie gala was chaired by Ambassador Mary M. Ourisman along with co-chairmen Paula Butler, Trish Donnelley, Darlene Jordan, Amanda Schumacher, Kathryn Vecellio, and Rhonda Wilkins, The Honorable Mary V. Mochary, The Honorable Nancy Ellison Rollnick, The Honorable William D. Rollnick, and The Honorable Beverly White Yeager. Associate chairmen Mr. and Mrs. Matthew T. Mellon II were unable to attend due to a flight cancellation caused by winter storm Nemo.

The ball honored the iconic American actress and socialite Dina Merrill, whose mother -Post cereal heiress, Marjorie Merriweather Post, founded the ball in 1957. Merrill's 22-year-old grandson, and Post's great-grandson, Cole Rumbough, an up and coming jazz singer, performed with the Peter Duchin Band.

Participating sponsors for this year's International Red Cross Ball included Amazon Web Services, Braman Motor Cars, Neiman Marcus, Seguso, The Estee Lauder Companies Inc., William R. Eubanks Interior Design Inc. and Zang Toi.

"The International Red Cross Ball celebrates the universality of the Red Cross and offers a wonderful chance for people to come together in support of this great organization," said Ambassador Ourisman. "I was proud to take a leadership position in support of this extraordinary organization again this year."

In addition to serving as ambassador from 2006 to 2009, Mary M. Ourisman is a noted patron of the arts and philanthropic causes. She was appointed to the Board of Trustees of the Kennedy Center where she helped create the Center's International Committee on the Arts, which fosters the worldwide exchange of information on the arts and supports programs in more than 60 countries. She has also served on the Board of Trustees of the Washington National Opera, as a member of the Board of Directors of the Blair House – the president's official state guest house for visiting dignitaries – and is an Emeritus Trustee of the Smithsonian Institution in Washington, D.C. She now serves on the Executive Committee of the Council of American Ambassadors, and the Executive Committee of the Meridian International Center.

MIAMI CITY BALLET'S DISCO & Diamonds!

27TH ANNIVERSARY
PALM BEACH GALA CELEBRATION
February 13, 2013 | The Breakers, Palm Beach

Celebrating Miami City Ballet's 27 years of world class dance in Palm Beach County, Disco and Diamonds! a Studio 54 inspired cocktail reception and dinner dance served as the dance troupe's signature benefit staged at The Breakers, Palm Beach.

The Disco & Diamonds! Gala on February 13 proved to be a sensational evening where diamond-clad guests arrived at the Disco-inspired Cocktail Hour and were greeted with signature cocktails, compliments of Bacardi USA, Inc. At the conclusion of the Cocktail Hour, guests were invited to dinner in the Venetian Ballroom, transformed into "Club Disco and Diamonds" for the evening. The room was set up in the style of a '70s disco club, with elevated "VIP" tables, a central dance floor, and sparkling disco balls hanging from the ceiling.

Lourdes Lopez and Michele Herbert greeted guests who were then treated to a scintillating one-night- only performance, Boogie Fever, featuring Miami City Ballet's Internationally Acclaimed Dancers. The performance started with The Hustle by Van McCoy and ended with Le Freak by Chic- highlights included YMCA by The Village People performed by the company men followed by Patti Labelle's Lady Marmalade performed by the lovely ladies of MCB. The performance was followed by dinner and the opportunity to dance with the dancers.

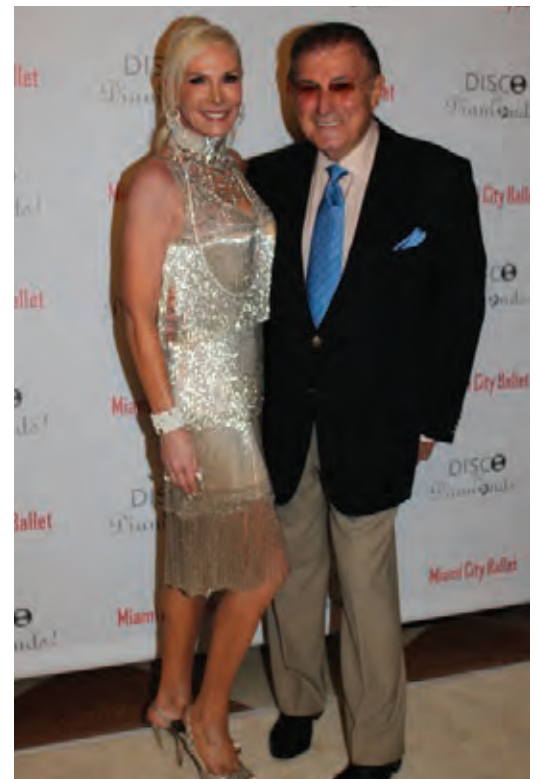

Premier sponsors for the event were loyal supporters of Miami City Ballet's Palm Beach presence Gillian Fuller, Michele and Larry Herbert, Addie and Gary Iscoe and Mike and Lora Schultz. Primary Sponsors include Madeline and Stephen Anbinder, Victor Kendall/WLRN, Marilyn and Bill Lane, and Eileen and Harry Meudt. Corporate Sponsors included Bacardi, U.S.A., Shutts and Bowen, Florida Crystals, PB Society Magazine, and Sephora.

Comedian Jim Belushi Draws Laughs at the Second Annual University of Miami Neurology Gala

Janet Levy & Cindy Feltenstein

More than 300 guests enjoyed a dazzling dinner, dancing and entertainment at The Breakers on Saturday, February 2, 2013 for the second annual "Solving the Neurological Puzzle Gala" benefitting the University of Miami Miller School of Medicine Department of Neurology.

Co-chairs of the gala, Janet Levy and Cindy Feltenstein, orchestrated a stunning evening featuring a champagne reception where University of Miami President Donna E. Shalala mingled with guests, before dinner, comedic entertainment, a live auction and even livelier dancing.

Professor and chair of neurology, Dr. Ralph Sacco, and Miller School Dean Dr. Pascal . Goldschmidt, both thanked the crowd and spoke about the great accomplishments that the University of Miami had done in the field of neurology in the last year as well as their plans for opening a medical facility in Palm Beach , moments before Michael Williams, local newschannel 5 anchor and Gala emcee led a live auction of several fabulous items. Among the items was a custom-fitted silk gown donated by celebrity designer Naheem Khan, a beautiful gold and pearl necklace donated by Kaufmann de Suisse, and prime box seats to a Miami Dolphins football game at Sun Life Stadium.

Gala co-chair Janet Levy briefly spoke from her seat thanking her co-chair, Cindy Feltenstein, Honorary Chair Herme de Wyman Miro and International Chair, Lois Pope, as well as Dr. Ralph Sacco, whom she credits for helping her regain her life back after suffering a major stroke 10 years ago.

Comedian and Saturday Night Live alum Jim Belushi got the night started by entering the room playing his harmonica, paying tribute to his hometown of Chicago. Then he brought his Chicago Comedy Troupe onstage to do a few improvisational skits which had the crowd roaring with laughter during an interactive show. The highlight of the evening came when Belushi reappeared with the night's band, Hot Property" to display his versatility as a performer, singing a handful of "Blues Brothers" songs such as "Everybody needs Somebody to Love" "Hey Bartender" and "You're So Fine" that got the event kicked up another notch.

Jan McArt

Person of the Moment

Director ,Theatre Arts Development
LYNN UNIVERSITY

Jan McArt, appropriately named “The First Lady of Florida’s Musical Theatre” by two governors’ decrees, has compiled an enviable record since coming to Boca Raton from New York 28 years ago.

Through her Royal Palm Center Production Company, she established the Jan McArt’s Royal Palm Dinner Theatre and Jan’s Rooftop Cabaret Theatre, along with the Little Palm Children’s Theatre in Boca Raton. She also started theatres in Fort Lauderdale, Delray Beach, Key West and Miami Beach, and produced many shows through her not-for-profit wing, Jan McArt’s American Festival Series.

Throughout her career, McArt has earned awards and recognition such as the prestigious George Abbott Lifetime Achievement Award from the South Florida Entertainment Writers, the Palm Beach Post’s “One of the 100 Most Influential People in Florida for This Century,” the B’Nai Brith International National Performing Arts Award, 278 Carbonell Award nominations for her dinner theatre, and a Carbonell Best-Actress Award for her performance in Nightclub Confidential.

Jan McArt’s Royal Palm Dinner Theatre took its last bow in April 2001 after a record run of nearly 24-1/2 years. As the first professional theatre in South Florida to run year-round, it set a high standard of excellence and helped pave the way for the rich, diverse theatre that South Florida enjoys today.

Since 2001, McArt has been concertizing, released her CD, Pray for Peace, and appeared in Florida Follies starring Florence Henderson and Carol Lawrence.

In 2004, McArt was appointed director of theatre arts program development at Lynn University. She is the founder and producer of the Libby Dodson’s Live at Lynn series.

Give a Dog
a Home!

Hi, I'm Bandit. If anyone knows a thing or two about giving a dog a home, it's me.

You see, I was born with a serious defect. All my brothers and sisters were high priced purebred Shih Tzu's—and I would've been too if it weren't for my pesky back legs dragging behind me everywhere instead of helping me walk like I wanted them to.

My breeder made the decision to euthanize me (a fancy word for killing me, as I understand it), but I was lucky enough to be rescued and get fully healed up! I landed on all 4 paws as Arthur E. Benjamin's "foster failure" and new best friend.

I'm sure glad I wasn't put down—think of all the fun I would've missed. More importantly, think of all the fun poor Arthur would've missed.
